Business Support Staff to Keep Services Running Smoothly

The administrative staff working behind the front line play a pivotal role in supporting your organisation in meeting the challenges of modern healthcare.

As experts in healthcare staffing, we know the challenges you face recruiting for these roles in a continually evolving workplace.

With our temporary staffing solutions, we are here to provide skilled and experienced people to provide maternity cover, step in to handle new projects or provide additional support during busy periods.

We support organisations like yours to fill every kind of administrative role:

- Office professionals from receptionists, administrators and PAs to credit controllers and customer service temps.
- HR and management professionals including HR directors, HR managers, HR generalists, compensation and benefits specialists, in-house recruitment managers and in-house recruiters.
- Finance roles such as financial controllers, accounts, payroll and credit control assistants, funds managers and analysts, and compliance, tax and audit specialists.
- Information communication technology specialists including data analysts, cyber security specialists, IT technicians, IT support staff and software engineers.

Over the past 3 years we have provided 500,000+ hours of business service support to our partners

Helping you fill roles rapidly and cost-effectively

We also have an agile and flexible approach that's built around your requirements. We work hard to present candidates who are a good match for your organisation's practical requirements and unique culture.

At the same time, our scale and extensive candidate pool means we can help you fill roles rapidly and cost-effectively.

Our experienced team frees up your in-house resource by taking care of all the administrative requirements, from pre-employment screening and compliance to onboarding, payroll management and post-placement follow-up.

It's a service designed to help you maximise your efficiency and enhance patient care.
